

DAY 2: JUNE 12 (SATURDAY)

10:30-12:30 Session 2: Dynamics of “in-between” Regions

Chair: Dominic Sachsenmaier (Duke University, USA)

1. East Central Europe: Challenge or Eldorado for Doing Transnational History?
- Frank Hadler (GWZO, Universität Leipzig, Germany)
2. Sayyid Hussein Story: Hami Muslims and the Frontier Perspective on the East Asian World
- Kwangmin Kim (University of Colorado-Boulder, USA)
3. The Places in-Between in the Era of Three Worlds
- Young-Sun Hong (State University of New York-Stony Brook, USA)

Discussant: Seung Mi Han (Yonsei University, Korea)

12:30-13:45 Lunch

13:45-15:45 Session 3: Counter-memories of Regions

Chair: Hoi-Eun Kim (Texas A&M University, USA)

1. “Europe for the Europeans”: German Intellectuals, Großraum and Nazi Expansionism, 1930-1939
- Peter Lambert (Aberystwyth University, UK)
2. Mass Murder by Mosquito: The Yaeyama Malaria Reparations Campaign, 1989-1997
- Alan Christy (University of California-Santa Cruz, USA)
3. “Asia” as a “Relational” Concept from the Perspective of Japanese Marxist Philosophers: Hiromatsu Wataru, Miki Kiyoshi, and Tosaka Jun
- Nakajima Takahiro (University of Tokyo, Japan)

Discussant: Mitani Hiroshi (University of Tokyo, Japan)

15:45-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-18:00 Session 4: Reimagining Regions

Chair: Eun-Shil Kim (Ewha Womans University, Korea)

1. 1884, Before Asia
- Stefan Tanaka (University of California-San Diego, USA)
2. Network, Identity and the State: Explaining the Dynamics of Transnational Asia and a Rising China
- Hong Liu (University of Manchester, UK)
3. What is Wrong with the Alternative Modernities Thesis?
- Brett Neilson (University of Western Sydney, Australia)

Discussant: Daqing Yang (George Washington University, USA)