

DAY 3: JUNE 13 (SUNDAY)

---

CURRICULUM

I. Problematizing Regions and Regionalization

- 09:45-11:15      Lecture and Q&A
- Alan Christy (University of California-Santa Cruz, USA)
- 11:15-11:30      Coffee Break
- 11:30-13:00      Lecture and Q&A
- Matthias Middell (Universität Leipzig, Germany)
- 13:00-14:15      Lunch
- 14:15-15:45      Student Seminar & Discussion
- 15:45-16:00      Coffee Break
- 16:00-18:00      Student Presentation & Feedback

Group 1

1. “Fighting” the Drug Epidemics in the 1970s: A New Transnational Approach to a Common Historical, Social and Political Problem of the Western World
- Alexandre Marchant (ENS Cachan, France)
2. “Building a New Future Program”: Studying the History of Women and Humanity through the Peace Movement
- Taeko Shibahara (Doshisha University, Japan)
3. Pedagogues Going Transnational: Education at World Exhibitions during the Second Half of the Nineteenth Century
- Klaus Dittrich (University of Portsmouth, UK)
4. Between Nationalistic Desire for K-pop Wave(Hallyu) and Transnational Fandom
- Jayoung Oh (Ewha Womans University, Korea)

Group 2

1. Lessons from “Around the World” with Oprah: Neoliberalism, Race and the (Geo)Politics of Beauty
- Sharon Heijin Lee (University of Michigan, USA)
2. Locating the Schoolgirl’s Body: Gender and Body Politics in the Early Years of Turkey
- Rustem Ertug Altinay (New York University, USA)
3. Representations of the “New Woman” in Japanese and Korean Women’s Writing, 1925-1940
- Elizabeth Grace (University of Cambridge, UK)