

DAY 4: JUNE 14 (MONDAY)

II. Rethinking Regions and Regionalization: Transnational Perspectives

- 09:45-11:15 Lecture and Q&A
- Jie-Hyun Lim (Hanyang University, Korea)
- 11:15-11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30-13:00 Lecture and Q&A
- Stefan Tanaka (University of California-San Diego, USA)
- 13:00-14:15 Lunch
- 14:15-15:45 Student Seminar & Discussion
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee Break
- 16:00-18:00 Student Presentation & Feedback

Group 1

- 1. Reconsidering Crime and Death Penalty after WWII: The Formation of Transnational Networks among Jurists and Criminologists
- Nicolas Picard (ENS Cachan / Université Paris I Panthéon Sorbonne, France)
- 2. People on the Move: African Americans Traveling between the US and the Caribbean 1909, 1939
- Patricia Wiegmann (Erfurt University, Germany)
- 3. Transnational Modern Girls: An Oral History Study about Intra-colonial Migration of Women in Colonial Korea
- Mee Sun Kim (Ewha Womans University, Korea)
- 4. Place Making: Peruvian Migrants Making a Community of People on the Move in South Korea
- Erica Vogel (University of California-Irvine, USA)

Group 2

- 1. The Mongolian-Mongolian Relations – Reflections on the Reflection
- Katarzyna Golik (University of Warsaw, Poland)
- 2. Applying the Concept of ‘Symbolic Boundary’ in Historical Research of Inter-Ethnic Relations in Soviet Estonia (1956-1985)
- Uku Lember (Central European University, Hungary)
- 3. Criminalisation of a Community: A Case Study of Nats in Forbesganj, Bihar
- Subir Rana (Jawaharlal Nehru University, India)