

DAY 4: JUNE 28 (TUESDAY)

09:30-11:00	Lecture and Q&A – Sandro Mezzadra (University of Bologna, Italy) Border as a Method: Movements and Struggles of Migration in a Globalizing World
11:00-11:15	Coffee Break
11:15-12:45	Lecture and Q&A – William Walters (Carleton University, Canada) “The vehicles are missing”. Why we should grant ships, railway tunnels and other material objects a more central place in studies of the contested politics of migration.
12:45-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:45	Student Presentation & Feedback

Group A

- 1. Rearticulating Territoriality, Identity and Rights: The Theoretical Implications of Migration in the Context of Europeanisation
– Chenchen Zhang (Luiss University of Rome, Italy)
- 2. The Repatriation of Former Forced Labourers to the Netherlands and to Belarus after WWII
– Tatsiana Vaitulevitch (Georg-August Universität Göttingen, Germany)

Group B

- 1. Why a Sociology of Space Helps to Research Borders
– Sabrina Grosse Kettler (Albert-Ludwigs Universität Freiburg, Germany)
- 2. Entering the Island of Torishima from a Bird's Eye View
– Coin Tyner (University of California-Santa Cruz, USA)

15:45-16:00	Coffee Break
16:00-17:45	Student Presentation & Feedback

Group A

- 1. Maid for Work: Globalisation, Gender and Migration in South Asia
– Neha Wadhawan (Jawaharlal Nehru University, India)
- 2. The Borderlands of Belief: North Korean Defectors and Strategic Intimacy
– Sarah Chee (University of California-Santa Cruz, USA)

Group B

- 1. Cosmopolitan Regimes and Jurisgenerative Norms: The European Court of Human Rights and the Reconceptualization of Citizenship in Secular Europe
– Joanna Rozpedowski (University of South Florida, USA)
- 2. Crossing the Oder. The Memory of the Flight and Expulsion of German Expellees in the Federal Republic of Germany 1990-2010.
– Arddun Arwyn (Aberystwyth University, UK)

18:00-	Farewell Party
--------	-----------------------

DAY 5: JUNE 29 (WEDNESDAY)

10:00-11:30	Wrap-Up Discussion
11:30	Adjournment